ABOUT BABITA

Babita has more than 10 years experience in auditing not-for-profits, government entities, and schools. She serves as a liaison between the partner, client and professional staff. Babita has extensive experience in not only conducting, but also supervising multiple audits, agreed upon procedures, or attestations through issuance and presentation of the report. Babita works to develop responsible, trained staff by assisting in recruiting, developing training aids, and acting as an instructor or discussion leader in professional development programs within the firm.
