ABOUT MATT

Matthew joined the firm in 2014 and brings more than ten years of professional experience. His tax experience includes corporate structuring with an objective of aligning the appropriate strategy with each taxpayer's needs. His annual tax compliance duties encompass comprehensive review of tax engagements including step by step presentation of tax adjustment as requested. He is also active in year long tax planning analysis and complex research projects. His primary focus is on client service. Matthew accomplishes his tasks through the supervision and training of the firm's staff.
