ABOUT MATT

For the past two decades, Matt Peck has been providing strategic taxation planning and consulting advice. As the leader of the firm's international tax practice, Matt has the depth of experience that is required for any organization with international operations. An expert in trade agreements, Matt is well-versed in the rules and regulations that govern import/export activities and how to best maximize your company's strategies. Working across several industrial sectors, Matt partners with a number of organizations that are both publicly-traded and privately-held.
